

Dr. Marcus J. Carlson

Teaching Experience

Courses Taught

Undergraduate:

- Working with Parents, Families and Community Organizations
- Applications in Youth Ministry
- Adolescent Spirituality
- Introduction to Youth Ministry
- Teaching Methods in Youth Ministry
- Ethics
- Organization and Administration of Christian Ministries
- Organization and Administration of Youth Ministries
- Leadership Formation
- Leader Care
- Spiritual Formation
- Curriculum Development for Youth
- Leadership & Management Theory
- Systematic Theology 2
- Seminar in Youth Ministry
- Biblical Foundations of Leadership
- Youth Ministry Internship
- Ministry Leadership Internship
- Leader as Teacher
- Seminar in Ministry Leadership
- Youth Ministry in Cultural Context
- Change, Conflict and Organizational Culture
- Youth Evangelism & Discipleship
- Foundations of Spiritual Formation
- Introduction to Communicating to Youth

Graduate:

- Faith & Formation in Developing Adults
- Program Design and Development in the Local Church
- Introduction to Ministry
- Texts and their Meaning
- Studies in Theologians
- Systematic Theology 2
- Philosophy of Religion
- Understanding the New Testament
- Studies in Old Testament
- Theology of Youth Ministry
- Studies in Church History

Dr. Marcus J. Carlson

Teaching Experience

Courses as Teaching Assistant/Guest Lecturer

- Interdisciplinary Studies Course-Eastern College
- Spiritual Formation (Graduate)-Fuller Seminary
- Guest Lecturer-Education Department-Purdue University Fort Wayne Campus

Courses Designed

- Working with Parents, Families and Community Organizations
- Teaching Methods in Youth Ministry
- Systematic Theology
- Studies in Old Testament—Graduate

Platforms Used:

- Traditional on site, Hybrid & Online (Pathwright, Blackboard, Moodle & Desire2Learn)